With a theme of "April Showers" and table decorations of lilacs, white irises, pink azaleas and pastel umbrellas, the Hope B & PW Club had a dinner meeting at the Diamond on Thursday, April 9. The 25 members in attendance will no longer ask "What's it all about?" When the Hope High School Journalism Department is mentioned. Now they know that "It is a chance to be creative."

Mrs. Mary Nell Turner, journalism instructor, told the club about her work in this interesting and creative field the past 15 years. There have been changes in the department since she began. She described them and gave current facts about the workroom, which is operated on an informal, drop-in basis. She said Yerger Junior High had a paper also this year.

The editors of the school newspaper, "The Hope Hi-Lights," and the school annual, "The Bobcat," Ralph Routon and Justin Caldwell, respectively, gave an insight into the preparation for printing these publications. At the conclusion of the program, it was decided that journalism is, indeed, a science. Copies of the last issue of "The Hope Hi-

One Fatality on Arkansas Highways

Arkansas registered a relatively accident-free weekend with only one fatality reported. Jesse Paul Hansell, 39, of Hummoke was killed Saturday when his pickup truck was hit by a train near Stuttgart.

The Associated Press week-end highway death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

KIRK QUILTS

Justice will, intervene in this case, now on appeal, and they will assist our efforts to obtain a modification of the District Court's order," Kirk told a statewide television audience.

Kirk said the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals "has agreed to expedite the disposition of this case."

He added: "Basically, Florida and the Department of Justice are in agreement. We believe we must obey and carry out our constitutional mandates—we agree the solutions to our problems must lie in the duly constituted courts."

Kirk said he would reinstate Manatee School Supt. Jack Davidson and members of the county school board so they could prepare for implementation of Krentzman's order Tuesday.

In Bradenton, Davidson said he would attempt again to move the pupils and 107 teachers ordered transferred. But he remarked, "I'm still a bit confused."

Judge Krentzman, who found Kirk in contempt of his court last Saturday and imposed the $10,000-a-day fine, said the governor's withdrawal apparently clears him of the penalty.

borough's vote against Carswell definitely will affect his current primary race with Lloyd Bentsen, who supported the nomination.

"Sen. Yarborough should vote for Texas at least once in a while," Bentsen said after Carswell was rejected. "The defeat was a combination of anti-South, ultra-liberal forces that think the Supreme Court is a place to write laws rather than interpret them."

The Democratic primary winner probably will face another Carswell supporter in the general election, Rep. George Bush, a Houston Republican.

In Tennessee, Gore is expected to win the Aug. 6 Democratic primary and most likely will face Rep. William E. Brock in November.

Brock has criticized Gore's support of native Tennesseean Abe Fortas, who was forced to resign from the high court under fire last year.

"Thus the senator," says Brock, "staunchly defended the virtues of liberal Justice Abe Fortas only to turn and condemn the 'indiscretion' of Judge Haynsworth and he now votes against Judge Carswell because 'his record looks bad.'"

But one Tennessee politician who backs Gore says the issue will have no effect whatsoever. "By November, nobody will remember who the hell Carswell was," he said, asking he not be quoted by name.

Of the 35 Senate seats at stake in this year's election, 25 are being defended by Democrats, the rest have Republican incumbents seeking a new term. Among these who could be troubled by the Carswell affair is Winston Prouty who voted against the nomination.

Prouty faces what promises to be a fierce re-election struggle even though he's a Republican in a predominantly Republican state facing a liberal Democrat.

The Democrat, however, is former Gov. Philip H. Hoff, a 45-year-old Kennedy follower who in 1968 completed an unprecedented three terms in office as the state's first Democratic governor in more than a century.

Hoff fired off some pro-Carswell statements just before the key voting began last week and Prouty reportedly got a release from the administration to vote against Carswell as long as it didn't affect the outcome.

He voted against the nomination Wednesday but the outcome already was clear when the clerk reached his name.

"I don't think that the average voter judges a man on one vote or one issue," said Republican Gov. Dean C. Davis of Vermont, a thought echoed by most observers who indicated Prouty's position will have no bearing on his re-election campaign at all.

Another state where the Carswell affair could have impact is Pennsylvania, where Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott is up for re-election.

Scott's defection was a key factor in the defeat of Haynsworth. He voted for Carswell but he appeared at times to be reluctant.

Showers Hit Some of Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansans awoke to fair skies and cool to mild temperatures today following Sunday night's brief but in some areas violent thunderstorms.

Hail and strong winds were reported in portions of Central and Northeast Arkansas, the Weather Bureau said. The violent weather was in connection with a slow moving cool front which is located to the east of the state.

The bureau said marble-sized hail stones fell in the Little Rock area and wind gusts near 40 miles per hour were reported at Adams field.

A low pressure system which was over northern California and western Nevada this morning was expected to drift to the east and possibly bring some more rain to Arkansas by Wednesday night or Thursday, the bureau said.

Highs Sunday ranged from 72 at Jonesboro to 82 at Fort Smith.

Overnight lows included 41 at Fayetteville and Harrison, 51 at Jonesboro, 52 at Pine Bluff, 54 at Texarkana, 42 at El Dorado, 53 at Memphis, 46 at Little Rock and 47 at Fort Smith.

Rainfall for the 24-hour period which ended at 7 a.m. today included .09 of an inch at Jonesboro, .33 at Memphis and .21 at Little Rock.

Killed Fighting Forest Fire

MARSHALL, Ark. (AP) — Virgil Ticer, 55, of Botkinburg (Van Buren County) was killed Saturday night while fighting a forest fire near here.

Ticer, who had been a state Forestry Service Ranger for more than 20 years, fell about 60 feet from a ledge on Peter Mountain in Searcy County, officials said.

James G. Cheyne Sr., 72, of Fort Smith, is the 1970 Arkansas "Mother of the Year."

Mrs. Tullie M. Wyrick of Magnolia, state chairman of the American Mother's Committee Inc. of Arkansas, made the announcement Saturday.

Life expectancy at birth is highest—71.6 years.

To our shame, however, the United States does lead in a dismal field—environmental destruction. Nearly 50 per cent of the world's industrial pollution is caused by our factories, refineries and motor cars.

Overcoming handicaps: Blind Ray Charles, the popular Negro entertainer, can do more than sing and play the piano. According to a profile in the New Yorker magazine, he can type 70 words a minute, is a good cook, and can play winning chess.

Safety statistic: A recent study revealed that teen-age drivers who had drunk two bottles of beer or less were almost three times as likely to be involved in car accidents as those who stuck to soft drinks.

It was Meister Eckhart who observed: "The very best and utmost of attainment in life is to remain still and let God act and speak in thee."

election-year challenge to Nixon over the level of federal aid to education.

In the wake of the nation's first postal strike, Congress is on the verge of approving a 6 per cent pay hike for all mail workers, military personnel and most other government employees. This is expected to add about $1.2 billion this year to President Nixon's budget calling for expenditures of $197.9 billion. Some predict the added costs will boost Nixon's budget over the $200 billion mark for the first time in history.

Nixon vetoed a $1 billion boost in education funds for the current fiscal year, but still was forced to accept a sizable increase. Supporters of higher spending are proceeding more cautiously this year and think a veto is unlikely.

The coalition of education organizations that has led the battle for additional money figures its battle has resulted in the Nixon administration and the House Appropriations Committee putting nearly $600 million more into school-aid programs than they intended.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

A HAIR PIECE IS USING THE OLD NOODLE

Dear Helen: Why couldn't it be more of a common thing for men who care to wear hairpieces? With women going for wigs in a big way, you'd think the days of self-improvement were here. Yet men are still looked upon as "conceited" or foolish when they try to make themselves look their best.

I suffered through premature baldness for years, thinking I couldn't take the kidding a hairpiece would bring. When I finally made the move, I discovered that more people were for me than against me.

Why has it taken so long for men's tops to come in style and be accepted when women can get a fad going overnight—and most of them don't need that extra hair half as badly as they do their thin-thatched husbands?—ONE WHO CARES

Dear OWC: Up until recently, men have been conned into believing that self-improvements like hairpieces, girdles, etc. were somehow unmasculine. But with male fashions and cosmetics big business now, these ideas are on their way out. And high time! Why shouldn't a man strive to look his best?—H.

Dear Helen: How can one be lonely in the midst of people? I have a big family numerous "friends," a job, yet I feel so alone most of the time that I might as well be on a desert island. My husband and I talk, but we never reach each other. It's always about superficial things, like "What do you want for dinner?" or "Did you feed the cat?"

If he or the children ever guessed what I was REALLY thinking, they'd be as surprised as I would if I knew what they were thinking.

Why can't people get close? Why must we hide behind layers of the police "nothings" we're expected to say? The few times I've broken out and expressed what I feel down deep, I'm looked upon as some kind of nut. It's as if everyone was afraid to share his innermost thoughts, so we deal in banalities. Do others feel as I do, and what can be done about it?—TURNED OFF.

Dear Turned Off: Yes, many others feel as you do—and that's why encounter groups are becoming so popular. They raise the blinds on those "inner rooms." And if they also make you aware of the chinks in the plaster—perhaps you can set about mending them.—H.

Dear Helen: One of the finest letters you ever printed was from the 13-year-old Negro boy who signed himself "Speaking Out," and hoped that someday the world would hear his people's words instead of their noise.

I believe that 90 percent of our citizens of all races want a peaceful and understanding integration. More of these silent ones should be working actively toward it, and speaking out.

My thanks to the young man for his courage and thanks to you, Helen, for giving him space!—OLD IN YEARS BUT YOUNG IN HEART

Dear Readers: "Speaking Out" got a unanimous round of applause for his thoughtful, sensible letter. As one writer observed, "If only all of us could be as sane as this 13-year-old, our world would get back into orbit again.—H.

One Astronaut Forgot His Income Tax

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Like many another American, John L. Swigert Jr. put off filing his income tax.

As a bachelor earning $20,385 a year, the reason might have been just a delay in paying the large chunk of money due and, anyway, he was busy helping friends prepare for a long trip.

April 15, after all, was still several days away.

But at the last minute something happened to make one friend miss the trip and Swigert went instead.

He went so fast, that not only did the income tax slip his mind, he also forgot to take a card that outlined some very important plans for the trip.

Then, on Sunday, came the revelation. It was akin to the situation of many a traveler who remembers, halfway to the seashore, that he left his wallet on the kitchen table.

By this time he was halfway to the moon on Apollo 13.

Somewhat sheepishly, Swigert asked if he could have some flight plan changes read up to him.

"I think that I forgot and left that card back during the suit-ing," he said. "I left it in the suit room."

Later, Swigert and the other two astronauts were having the day's news read to them when came an item that began: "Today's favorite pastime across the U.S. . . ."

Capsule communicator Joseph Kerwin reading the item, stopped and said: "Oh, oh, have you guys filed your income tax yet?"

It was one of those light remarks that always pass between ground and spacecraft to break the monotony of the interminable numbers that are passed verbally back and forth.

"How do I apply for an extension?" said Swigert, suddenly alert. There was a lot of laughter.

"Hey listen," said Swigert, "that's not funny. Things kinda happened real fast down there and I do need an extension. I didn't get mine filed."

More laughter.

"I'm really serious," came the voice from space. "I may be spending time in another quarantine besides the one they are planning for me."

Now the ground was soothing. It'd be taken care of. There was some more banter about having an agent meeting the crew on the recovery carrier in the Pacific on splashdown, before the quarantine that ends May 8.

Later Swigert was told about an Internal Revenue Service regulation that provides an automatic extension for anyone out of the country.

"That's good news," said Swigert. "I guess I qualify."

No Agreement on Moving ABA Franchise

NEW YORK (AP) — There is no agreement on moving the Washington club of the American Basketball Association to the National Basketball Association as part of a merger deal, says Earl Foreman, owner of the Washington franchise.

Foreman told The Associated Press by telephone from Washington Sunday:

"I'm not aware of any agreement reached between the two merger committees and I was there every minute."

Sam Shulman of the NBA's Seattle franchise had announced Saturday that the three-man merger committees, which met in Palm Springs, Calif., had agreed in principle on the following:

The ABA would pay the NBA an $11 million indemnity over 10 years, the Washington franchise would move to another city, and Rick Barry would return to San Francisco of the NBA from Washington.

"The agreements will not be proposed to the leagues," Shulman said.

Foreman also said no agreement had been made on Barry returning to San Francisco.

"It was unfortunate that he (Schulman) issued the statement he did," Foreman said. "I don't know why he did."

ABA Commissioner Jack Rupp also said from his Connecticut home that "Foreman has not agreed to leave Washington."

"There seems to be some basic understanding between the committees, but there are some unresolved items that the committees still must iron out," Dolph said.

Casper and Littler in Shootout

By HUBERT MIZELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Gene Littler, a quiet man who already drives three Rolls Royces, faced a jittery 18-hole playoff today against crosstown buddy Billy Casper for a mere coat of green.

For that coat of green, South African Gary Player would have swapped the world.

Casper's 10-foot putt to win it all Sunday whipped out of the 18th hole and the muscular Player—trying to make it a party of three today—missed from seven feet and left coastless.

"I'll tee it high and let it fly Monday," promised Casper, who converted quickly from the grim putt-misser of the 18th to a smiling playoff man preparing for another day.

Asked about his tactics for the 2:15 p.m., EST, shootout, Littler mullied so long that Casper answered for him, "He'll tee it low and let it go."

Casper and Littler live 25 miles apart in the San Diego, Calif., area and have played golf together since the last shot of the Korean War. Both are devoted family men who skip many $150,000 tournaments to fish with their kids.

Littler's off-course hobby is antique cars. His garage is cluttered with three sparkling, old Rolls Royces and a model T Ford. "They're all like me," he said in the Herb Shriner-type drawl. "They can't drive too far."

Both Californians have won the U.S. Open in their glittering golf careers, but neither has captured the Masters and its famed green jacket. Littler won the 1961 Open and Casper was best in 1959 and 1966.

There were many heroes on the chilly, bleak Sunday at Augusta's National Club. But when the spotlight settled on the humbling 18th green, there were only three. Two made it and Player missed by two inches on a 10-foot putt.

Casper's rounds of 72-68-68-71 gave him a nine-under-par 279 total for the week. Littler made it with an incredibly consistent 69-70-70-70. Player's closing 70 left him a strike shy at 280 after a weak Thursday opening of 74 on the rolling 6,980-yard course.

"My father always told me to be humble in victory and smile in defeat," said a dejected Player, who who the Masters in 1961.

"Well, fellows, here are my teeth. I'm smiling at you."

Today's winner in the nationally televised playoff will receive $25,000 of the $203,801 payoff. The loser gets $17,500.

Player said he "would have rather lost by five shots than on the last putt" when picking up his $14,000 third-place reward.

Bert Yancey, a threat all week who lost out with a bogey at the 18th, wound up with 70-281 and won $10,000.

Yancey and Player hit the same sand trap on the 420-yard finishing hole and failed to make their putts for pars.

Georgian Tommy Aaron, Dave Hill and Dave Stockton picked up $6,667 for 283 aggregates and Jack Nicklaus—who exploded into contention with an eagle 3 on No. 2—failed to generate a threat up the stretch and took a $4,500 check. Nicklaus finished eighth with 69-284.

Arnold Palmer, who never broke par in this 34th Masters, buzzed the course in his private jet after finishing almost three hours head of the frontrunner. He had 75-73-74-73 for 295, tying the four-time Master champion for 36th place in the 48-man windup.

Casper may have won it all Sunday yet it did not even for the 530-yard eighth hole, a usually simple stop that caused several heartbreaks during the week.

Nicklaus died as a serious five-run fourth inning.

Niekro, who drove in two runs with a triple in the big inning, stopped the heavy-hitting Orioles with only a bunt single by Mark Belanger until they broke through with single runs in the eighth and ninth. The right-hander, obtained from San Diego in an off-season trade, pitched a shutout against Washington in his American League debut last week.

Washington made the most of six hits—Boston had 15—mainly because Mike Epstein belted a two-run homer and Frank Howard hit two long doubles and drove in two runs. Gerry Moses had a single, double and homer for the Red Sox.

Sam McDowell struck out 10 Yankees and moved past Carl Hubbell into 34th place on the all-time list as Cleveland won its opener. Russ Nagelson provided the winning run.

threat there on Saturday when he lost a three-wood second shot and was shocked with a triple-bogey 8.

Casper drove to a bunker and hit his second shot fat. It left him 207 yards to the green.

"I walked to the top of the hill to see how far I was away," said Casper, who has added back about 15 of the pounds he lost on his famous diet.

"Then I walked up a second time to check the pin placement. I was tired and my third shot showed it."

Casper's effort landed near the curbing of an asphalt cart path. He was allowed to drop the ball from the curb, but had to play it from atop the pavement.

"I teed it up on some wood chips after failing in three drop attempts," he said.

"I had a fair lie—as good as you can on asphalt—but hit it in the woods from there. I punched onto the green and two-putted for an easy 7."

There have been five previous Masters playoffs. Gene Sarazen defeated Craig Wood on a 36-hole in 1936.

The rest have been 18-hole extras with Byron Nelson beating Ben Hogan in 1942, Sam Snead whipping Hogan in 1954, Palmer beating Player and Dow Finsterwald in 1962 and Nicklaus beating Tommy Jacobs and Gay Brewer in 1966.

Palmer's 68 in '62 was the lowest score ever in a playoff and Brewer's 78 in the worst.

Astros Unload Five Homers on Atlanta

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston's Toy Cannon is behaving like a long range missile again and the rest of the Astro arsenal is following suit.

Jim Wynn, the mini-slugger who smacked 33 home runs for Houston last season, hit a pair of tape-measure shots Sunday as the Astros unloaded five homers—AB Record—and whipped Atlanta 8-3.

The muscular, 5-foot-9 outfielder sent Phil Niekro pitches rocketing into the Astrodome's fourth and fifth levels, respectively, before Joe Pepitone Tommy Davis and Doug Rader completed the long ball binge.

Elsewhere in the National League, Cincinnati swept a double-header from San Francisco 6-5 and 5-2; Pittsburgh downed Philadelphia 3-1 in 10 innings; Montreal blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0; Los Angeles zipped San Diego 6-0 and the New York Mets beat St. Louis 6-4.

In American League play, Milwaukee swept a pair from the Chicago White Sox 5-2 and 16-2; the New York Yankees split with Cleveland, winning the nightcap 5-4 after a 2-1 loss; Washington nipped Boston 6-5.

Detroit stopped Baltimore 7-2 and California trimmed Kansas City 7-5. Oakland and Minnesota were rained out.

Wynn unloaded into the domed stadium's purple seats in the first inning and hit his second bases-empty homer even farther in the third, reaching the third row of yellow seats.

"I got a little glimpse of both of them," he said. "When you hit a ball that hard, you've got to look."

"I can't believe that Jim hit two homers off Niekro," said Rader, only other Astro ever to homer into the fifth deck—in an exhibition game this spring. "The only way you can hit home runs off Niekro is if he gets behind and throws you a fast ball."

"I guess one he hit was a fast ball, but I know he also hit one off the knuckleball."

The loss was the second in as many decisions this season for Niekro, the Braves' knuckleball ace who won 23 a year ago.

John Bench delivered the deciding run in each game for the Reds, who prevailed at San Francisco despite a seven-hit spree by Giants' rookie Alan Gallagher.

Tony Perez belted four hits, including a pair of homers, for four RBIs in the opener before Bench's run-scoring single in the ninth gave Cincinnati a 6-3 lead. The run stood up despite a two-run San Francisco rally—helped by Bench's error—in the bottom of the ninth.

In the nightcap, Bench's two-run triple in the sixth broke a 1-1 deadlock and the Reds held on behind the pitching of Gary Nolan and Wayne Granger.

Bill Mazeroski, whose eighth inning single drove in Pittsburgh's first run, rapped a tie-breaking two-run homer off Jim Bunning in the 10th. Steve Blass went the distance on the mound for the Pirates.

Montreal won its first game after four setbacks as Bill Stoneman checked the Cubs on three hits and Ron Fairly hit a two-run homer.

The Dodgers, winless in all five previous starts, erupted for four first inning runs, added a pair in the seventh on Bill Grabarkewitz' homer and stymied San Diego on Bill Singer's four-hitter.

New York ace Tom Seaver gave up nine hits, including a Richie Allen homer, and needed late relief help but drove in three Met runs himself with a single and double on the way to his first victory of the new season.

Pacers Are Ready for Playoffs

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — "We are ready for the playoffs," Indiana Pacers Coach Bobby Leonard said Sunday after his team had proved it with a record-smashing 177-135 victory over the Pittsburgh Pipers.

In other games, Denver trimmed New Orleans 132-123, Los Angeles nipped Carolina 105-101, Kentucky beat Washington 128-126, and New York held off Miami 113-111.

The Pacers, Eastern Division champions of the American Basketball Association, broke an ABA record with their 17 points. Other records established included the 96 points scored by the two teams in the final period.

"We've been waiting for the playoffs. Now we have the sharpness and desire to go out and kill somebody," said guard John Barnhill, the game's top scorer with 31 points.

The Pacers have regular season games at New Orleans tonight and at Miami Wednesday night before starting playoff action here Saturday, against Carolina.

The old ABA single-game scoring mark was set by the Pacers last season, when they had 172 points against Los Angeles.

Indiana clinched first place in the division several weeks ago, and the team has picked up some hometown critics for its play since then. The Pacers had lost five of their last six games before Sunday.

"I think this proved his (Leonard's) point," said Jay Miller. "Some of the fans were getting on him because we lost a few games by platooning and trying new plays. . . but he got us all ready."

Eight Pacers were in double figures, and the team had 73 of 130 field goal attempts. The field goal total also was a record.

Mike Lewis, Stew Johnson and George Thompson scored 26 points each for the Pipers, who were never in the game after being outscored 46-28 in the first quarter.

The National Basketball Association scoring record for a game is the 173 points by the Boston Celtics against the Minneapolis Lakers in 1959. Leonard was on the losing side that time, as a Lakers player.

Spencer Haywood, Denver's super rookie who leads the league in scoring and rebounding, popped in 35 points in the Rockets' easy victory.

The Western Division champions swept to their sixth straight victory and 18th in a row at home. The loss eliminated New Orleans from a playoff spot.

The Los Angeles Stars clinched a playoff spot and got to within one-half game of Dallas in the West with their triumph. Willie Wise, with 24 points, led the Stars, who pulled away late in the final period. George Peoples had 20 for the Cougars.

Kentucky clinched second place in the East with Lou Dampier leading the Colonels' charge with 34 points. Jim Li-gon added 31 while Rick Barry had 39 for Washington.

Luther Green's two free throws with 39 seconds remaining, enabled the New York Nets to hold off the Floridians. Walt Simon had 34 points for the Nets while Don Freeman tossed in 37 for Miami.

West, Baylor Lead Lakers From Behind

ATLANTA (AP) — "It seems like all we did in the second half was shoot free throws."

Guard Jerry West had that explanation Sunday as the Los Angeles Lakers, hitting 47 of 60 charity tosses, came from behind to down the Atlanta Hawks 119-115 in the opening game of their best-of-seven series for the National Basketball Association's Western Division championship.

The two teams clash again here Tuesday.

West, who combined with forward Elgin Baylor to lead the Laker assault from the line, pointed to the obvious. Los Angeles canned 35 of 40 charity shots in the second half and, in the process, overcame a 16-point Atlanta lead.

Baylor said the rash of Atlanta fouls was prompted by big Wilt Chamberlain, who only recently returned to the Laker lineup after knee surgery.

"When we pass to Wilt," he said, "everybody starts breaking. There's an inclination for the opposing team to look back momentarily and, when we take off, they've been caught in that split second. The natural move of the man guard you is to try to slow you down without getting caught by the officials."

Atlanta Coach Richie Guerin disagreed, however, and said the Lakers "didn't get that many fouls off the cutoff situations."

He also was somewhat brusque when asked why his team was nabbed for so many fouls in the second half.

"You're asking that question in the wrong room," he declared. "Go in there where game officials (Mindy) Rudolph and (Manny) Sokol are."

Atlanta, primarily behind the brilliant play of Walt Bellamy, took a 28-25 lead in the first quarter, stretched it to 67-52 at intermission, then ran into trouble after building a 16-point edge midway of the third period.

ASU Vaulter Sets a New Record

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Barney Hess, an Arkansas State University freshman, set a new state collegiate pole vault record at the Wichita Relays here Saturday.

Hess vaulted 16 feet. The old record of 15-8 was set by Ken Sharp of the University of Arkansas in 1966.

The University of Colorado finished first in the meet with 75 points. ASU was fifth with 33.

93-88 at the end of the third and finally went ahead to stay on two foul shots by Baylor with 2:03 remaining.

West, with 38 points including 18 of 21 free throws, led the Laker attack although Baylor, with 14 of 18 charity tosses, finished with 30. Walt Hazzard was high for Atlanta with 29 points.

Bellamy, who hit 12 points and snagged eight rebounds in his big first quarter, finished with 24 points and 21 rebounds. At the same time, he limited Chamberlain to 16 points and 17 rebounds.

The eventual winner of the Western Division will meet the Eastern Division champ—either Milwaukee or New York—for the NBA title.

Around SWC Training Camps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southwest Conference football teams have been about spring training camps long enough to realize some of their assets and liabilities.

New Texas Tech head coach Jim Carlen says he's beginning to see daylight.

"We are beginning to find out who the players are," Carlen said after a two-hour controlled scrimmage Saturday. "I am impressed with the hard work and enthusiasm the team has shown so far. We have arrived at the stage where we can find out who goes where."

Carlen praised junior-to-quarterback Charles Napper and the running of Miles Langehennig, Danny Hardaway, Don Crocker and Doug McCutcheon.

The Raiders close out spring drills May 2 with their spring game at Plainview.

fensive team is farther along now than at this time last year. The Frog defenders did most of the scoring Saturday in a scrimmage—three times in fact. Danny Colbert took a punt return 75 yards for a touchdown. Doug McKinnon returned one of two pass interceptions 50 yards for a score and Larry Dibble went 45 yards with a fumble.

TCU closes out spring training May 1. The Baylor defense also had the jump on the offense as the to visit the establishment anytime, especially on Thursday, sale day.

Ed Aslin arranged the program, introduced the speaker and presided over the business meeting in the absence of club officers. A Rotary Banner from Beersheba in the Holy Land had been brought back by Rotarian Guy Basye, and he promised to have a program about that land in the near future.

Three guests at the club meeting were Ralph Montgomery, Hamilton Hanagan and Bill Freeman.

Bears completed with first week of spring training with a controlled scrimmage Saturday. The defense held the offense to two touchdowns.

Baylor head coach Bill Beall said he was pleased with the work of veterans Dennis Watson and David Jones and newcomers Roger Goree and Rick Schmidt. Rice Coach Bo Hagen's decision to move quarterback Stahl Vincent to tailback is proving a wise move. In Saturday's drill, Vincent broke twice on 60 and 40 yard scampers.

The Little man got into the act in Saturday scrimmage sessions.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset Hall, Atwood Will Be on Swim Tour

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mark down Gary Hall and Susie Atwood as two of the eight choices for an American swimmer in the summer.

Hall, an Indiana University freshman hailed by some as the world's best swimmer today, and Miss Atwood, a 16-year-old straight-A high school student, swam off with the major honors in the national AAU indoor short course swimming championship Sunday night.

The AAU will announce this week the four men and four women who will represent the United States against Austrian and Czechoslovakian teams. Selections will be based on performances in the indoor competitions here.

Hall, a zealous trainer, swam off with four titles -- the only one to do it in the AAU -- in the 200 yard backstroke, 400 individual medley, 200 butterfly and 200 individual medley.

Miss Atwood of Long Beach, Calif., was named the outstanding woman swimmer in the AAU indoor meet for the second straight year. She collected 200 backstroke and 400 IM titles and finished second in the 200 butterfly and 200 IM.

The Santa Clara (Calif.) Swim Club claimed the men's and women's team titles. The men piled up 285 points to University of California's 249 and the women earned 327 to 211 for Lakewood (Calif.) Aquatic Club.

Three American records set Sunday night swelled the four-day total to 15 in the 30 event meet. Another national mark was tied and 17 meet records were set.

Olympian Debbie Meyer, a Sacramento, Calif. high school senior, lowered her 1,650 yard freestyle record to 16:54.6. She is the first woman swimmer to crack 17 minutes for that distance.

Would Really Like to Just Stay Home

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bill Reay thought about the question for a moment.

Now that Detroit was out of the way, who would the Chicago coach prefer to face in the National Hockey League Stanley Cup semifinals when Boston and New York finally settle their series?

"After looking at that game last night on TV," said Reay thoughtfully, "I'd like to stay home."

The Black Hawks finished off Detroit in four straight games, winning each of them by a 4-2 score—the final one Sunday. Now Chicago will wait for the survivor—if anybody survives — of the small war being staged between New York and Boston in the other East Division series.

The Rangers squared that one at two games apiece with a 4-2 victory over the Bruins Sunday night. In West Division play Sunday, Minnesota tied its series with St. Louis at 2-2 by surprising the Blues 4-0 and Pittsburgh swept Oakland in four straight with a 3-2 overtime victory.

Detroit, which dropped only three of its last 19 regular season games in the torrid NHL stretch drive, appeared burned out against the Black Hawks and never got started.

Chicago dominated the series throughout, although none of the games were runaways. Bobby Hull led all scorers with three goals and six assists in the four games while Stan Mikita, who had a goal and two assists Sunday, finished with three goals and four assists for the series.

While Chicago was finishing off Detroit, the Rangers and Bruins almost finished each other off. The two clubs tied or broke every team penalty record for a single Stanley Cup game in Saturday's 4-3 Ranger victory and still were belting each other Sunday as New York evened the series.

In Saturday's game Referee John Ashley called 38 penalties for a total of 174 minutes including 14 majors and seven misconducts. Boston's Derek Sanderson and New York's Dave Balon both were tagged with double majors, misconducts and game misconducts before the game was two minutes old.

Barber, Sikes in the Money

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Miller Barber of Texarkana, Tex., finished the four-day Masters golf tournament here with a total of 291 Sunday to win $2,250.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale, Ark., won $1,500 after finishing with a total of 300.

misconducts before the game was two minutes old.

Streaky Rod Riber, who struggled through the final five weeks of the regular season without a goal, scored two in 71 seconds Sunday, helping the Rangers to a quick lead they never relinquished. That gave Gilbert four goals in the series and six in his last five games.

Minnesota drew even with St. Louis at two games apiece, parlaying Cesare Maniago's shut-out goaltending into a second straight victory over the Blues.

Maniago kicked out 34 shots and Bill Goldsworthy scored his fourth goal and assisted on another for the Cinderella North Stars, who did not qualify for the Stanley Cup showdown until the final weekend of the regular season.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Edward Bulwer, 1st Baron Lytton of Knebworth, was an English novelist and politician during the 1800s. The World Almanac notes that in 1839 he wrote, "Beneath the rule of men entirely great, the pen is mightier than the sword." The text appeared in Act II, Scene 2 of his play, "Richelieu."

Opening lead—♠ A

Jim: "Let's devote some articles to the grand-slam force. Ely Culbertson invented it when I was two or three years old, didn't he?"

Oswald: "Yes, he did. Ely was always looking around for new ways to put lazy bids to work. He was the first to think of using four no-trump to ask about aces. He hedged the Culbertson four no-trump with so many restrictions that it never caught on. Then he thought about using certain five no-trump bids to ask partner to bid seven if he held two of the three top honors in the agreed trump suit. If not, he was to sign off at six. This bid died on the vine but has been revived in the last 10 years. It is used in some form or other by almost every expert pair in the world."

Jim: "It has also been made far more complicated since it now asks partner to tell just how good his trumps are. Thus, if spades are the agreed suit, the partner can reserve the jump to seven as showing all three, the bid of six spades as showing two, six hearts to show the ace or king, six diamonds to show the queen and six clubs to show none of the top three."

Oswald: "The bidding shown for today's hand is the convention in its original form. South is sure that he will make the grand slam if North holds both the ace and queen of trumps and since North holds them he bids the grand slam directly."

Jim: "Since North holds both ace and queen of spades the simple Culbertson grand-slam force would get the grand slam. Change North's queen of spades to a small one. Modern expert methods would still get you to seven but the simple method would leave you at six."

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1 ♠	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

▲ K J 7 5 2 ♥ 4 3 2 ▲ A K 10 8 7

What do you do now?

A—Bid three or four spades. We have a slight preference for the more conservative jump to three.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You do bid three spades and your partner bids four diamonds. What do you do now?

About the Incessant Change in Tax Forms

If you are one of those lost souls who put off a chore until the last minute you are unpleasantly aware that just two days remain in which to file your federal income tax return. They lower the boom Wednesday, April 15.

To escape penalty for late filing your envelope must show a postmark cancellation not later than April 15. If you are running late with your tax return here is a caution:

Hope Post Office closes at 3:30 p.m.—but you should deposit your envelope before 9:15 if you want to be sure of the April 15 cancellation mark. This information is authentic because I got it from the post office this morning.

The paper work that Americans have to deal with the first three or four months of every year is fantastic. It hits three climaxes—March 15 when the federal tax returns of companies operating on the calendar year are due; April 15, the deadline for personal federal returns; and May 15, when Arkansas tax returns are due.

Since most companies employ a certified public accountant to make an annual audit they have him also prepare company tax returns. Individuals are another matter.

Some with complicated schedules turn their chore over to a CPA; many others go to a public tax consultant—and a rugged few, like your editor, wage the battle alone.

I filed my 1969 federal and 1970 declaration April 7—and the Arkansas return this morning. You have discovered by this time that the 1969 federal form is greatly changed from 1968—and the Arkansas form has been shaken up, too, as I discovered over the week-end.

Even without year-to-year changes there is difficulty in rewriting the federal return to suit the state form, because the stipulations are different. This is something calculated to inspire a taxpayers' revolt.

An easy way out would be to make all state income tax forms track exactly with the federal pattern—and then fix the state as a certain percentage of the federal tax. A single percentage calculation would dispose of your state tax in a few minutes.

But the year-to-year changes in the tax form pass all understanding—unless you suspect, as I do, that government has to find some way of justifying the employment of its army of workers.

Researchers have to look like they are busy, so they hatch up new ideas to be incorporated in next year's tax return form. Government printers love it, because this means more "in-de work" for them to do.

The filing-cabinet makers and other suppliers applaud change, because change automatically creates a demand for more files—and more workers to manipulate the files.

What about you, the taxpayer? You don't count—this is a deal strictly for the privileged class who man the bureaus of government... a fraternity to which you don't belong.

LA Trying to Keep Schools on Schedule

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The nation's second largest school system sought to keep running in spite of an expected teachers' strike today.

Supt. Robert Kelly said he would keep all possible classes in the 616 schools open with non-strikers, 2,000 substitute teachers and supervisors.

Robert Ransom, president of the United Teachers of Los Angeles, the union representing 22,000 of the district's 25,000 teachers, asked Kelly to close the schools.

"Poor education is worth less than no education at all," Ransom told newsmen Sunday. "It is better to close down the system and hope the public comes to our aid. My hope is that the parents and taxpayers will rally behind the UTLA to pressure the state legislature to give the district more money."

Cong Attacks Build Up Casualties

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese attacks in the Central Highlands and the northern quarter of South Vietnam killed two more Americans and 25 South Vietnamese as the enemy offensive moved into its 13th day, military spokesman announced today.

Another 15 Americans and 170 South Vietnamese were wounded.

Enemy gunners also shot down four U.S. helicopters in widely separated parts of the country, killing two more Americans and wounding seven others.

According to captured documents, the Communist high command is referring to the offensive as the X Campaign, and plans to continue it in various phases until June. Informants sources said they didn't know why the Communists chose that name.

Other captured documents disclosed that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces had been ordered to make an all-out effort to disrupt the South Vietnamese government's pacification program, one source reported.

The worst North Vietnamese assault reported today, apparently a revenge attack, hit a camp housing the families of South Vietnamese Rangers who had been sent to the defense of the Dak Seang Special Forces camp 60 miles to the north.

The transfer of the Rangers left the camp five miles north of Pleiku lightly defended. North Vietnamese sappers broke in during the night, firing rocket grenades and rifles and hurling dynamite bombs. They killed 13 men, women and children, wounded 70 and burned down about 25 houses.

Only two sappers were reported killed.

Earlier Sunday, North Vietnamese troops for the first time fought their way into the Special Forces camp at Dak Pek, a forward base for operations into Laos.

Field reports said 11 Montagnard tribesmen were killed and 88 wounded, including families of the mountain tribesmen as well as those hired as guerrillas. A number of Montagnards also were reported missing.

South Vietnamese headquarters claimed 61 North Vietnamese killed in the attack.

At Dak Seang, under siege since April 1, one civilian irregular was killed and three wounded in a small clash 300 yards from the camp. Enemy casualties were not known. In a second clash six miles south of Dak Seang, seven North Vietnamese were killed while there were no government casualties.

In the northern quarter of the country, North Vietnamese sappers blasted their way into an artillery base nine miles southeast of Quang Tri City, killing two Americans.

Some Very Interesting Dope Can Be Learned by Reading Your Mail

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Some 600 million people throughout the world suffer from chronic headaches, often of mysterious origin. A new medical theory holds that a majority of such cases may result from overlooked neck injuries and often can be cured by putting the patient in traction.

Do you bite your fingernails? That may cause them to grow up to 20 per cent faster than normal, thus giving you still more to chew on.

No wonder smart businessmen are courting brides and teen-agers. The average bride spends three times as much for her initial purchases of home furnishings as a typical U.S. family does in a year. As for teen-agers, 17 per cent now own their own television sets, 75 per cent own radios, and 18 per cent own a tape recorder. Teen-agers also account for 25 per cent of the $4 million a year cosmetics industry.

Speaking of brides again, few of them will start married life in a romantic cottage small by

Cattlemen Say They'll Produce Enough If U.S. Keeps Its Nose Out

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cattlemen say they will produce plenty of beef for expanding consumer appetites, but only if prices remain high and the federal government keeps its nose out.

"We think, and we're confident, that the cattle industry is going to continue to produce beef at a rate which would allow a further increase in the per capita level of consumption," says C. W. McMillan, executive vice president of the American National Cattlemen's Association.

"But we need to be sure to have the economic incentive to do it," McMillan said during an interview with ANCA leaders. "Of course, this is reflected in prices."

William D. Farr, ANCA president, whose feedlots near Greeley, Colo., turn out nearly 20,000 tons of quality beef annually, said today's cattle prices—generally the highest in many years

School Funds to Jolt the Budget

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's shakily balanced budget, already teetering as a result of salary increases won by postal and other government workers, will be jolted this week by House demands for increased education spending.

An appropriations bill calling for a $319 million increase in Nixon's 1971 education budget will be voted on Tuesday and anywhere from $100 million to $300 million extra is likely to be added to the House floor.

With further increases possible when the bill goes to the Senate, the Democratic-controlled Congress is readying an

Spring Hill Pre-school Registration

Pre-school registration for pupils who will enter the first grade next September at Spring Hill will be held on Friday, April 17th. Parents are asked to report to the school on that date to register their child for school next year. Pupils must be six years of age on or before October 1st to be eligible to enter the first grade in September. Also, each child must have proof of a successful vaccination against smallpox and other immunizations.

Countrymen Have Unique Sound

The Countrymen are very unique in their sound. They have taken the "Charley Pride and Merle Haggard" sound and have put gospel words to it. In fact, Merle Haggard's steel guitar player got his start with the Countrymen.

The group is composed of Jerry Short the manager, who also plays electric bass, and sings lead. His wife, Doris, sings tenor and has been compared to Connie Smith in her style.

David Robbins plays steel guitar and is one of the most accomplished steel guitar players in the world today. David adds that special touch to Jerry's arrangements that blends together to make a country gospel sound that is so different and refreshing. Son Steve Short provides a solid beat on the drums that rounds out a sound that has made the countrymen famous. They call Bakersfield, California home but their greyhound type bus is home ten months out of the year.

The Countrymen will appear on the same program with the singing Hemphills. Gospel music is producing the program entitled "An Evening With the Singing Hemphills." The concert will be April 17 at the Third District Livestock Show Coliseum at 8:00 p.m.

—would provide such incentive. The ANCA remarks followed a congressional committee action last Thursday which turned back a report calling for more federal supervision of the cattle business.

The report, written by a subcommittee headed by Rep. John S. Monagan, D-Conn., urged Congress to set up a special commission to determine "the adequacy of the meat supply" at all marketing levels from ranches to supermarkets.

The report also said present U.S. meat import quota regulations were detrimental to consumers by restricting the amount of foreign beef allowed to come into this country.

Farr and other cattlemen opposed the recommendation and effectively lobbied last week against the report.

The Monagan report charged cattlemen have not kept pace with demand and that unless action is taken soon the nation could have a serious beef shortage by 1975.

Per capita beef consumption rose from about 60 pounds a year after World War II to 110 pounds last year, McMillan said, "and this wasn't done through any public utilities approach" or federal commission riding herd on the cattle business.

Economists Think Auto Owners Just as Well Off Buying Every Two Years

By G. DAVID WALLACE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government economists say most automobile owners are just as well off buying a new car every two years as they are trying to keep the old bus running.

"Assuming a normal amount of driving, keeping a car after it is two years old does save some money, but not very much," said a report by the Federal Highway Administration.

"The decision to trade in a car or keep it a while longer should be based on the owner's tastes and circumstances, rather than on any thought of increasing or decreasing his cents-per-mile owning and operating costs. As far as economy is concerned, he can make the decision with a clear conscience."

The report showed the cost of keeping a car for 10 years has increased from 10.21 cents a mile about a year ago to 11.89 cents a mile this year.

The study found a big increase in insurance costs, which jumped from 1.41 cents a mile to 1.72 cents a mile, despite inclusion of less extensive coverage in this year's computations. In a year-by-year breakdown of the cost of keeping a car—depreciating its purchase price over 10 years—the study found the first year costs 14.21 cents a mile and the second 11.27 cents.

The cost rises for the next two years to 12.51 cents a mile then gradually tapers off to 10.83 cents a mile in the 10th year.

The study, done on the basis of information gathered from repairmen and car dealers rather than an averaging of statistical studies, involved a theoretical 4-door sedan from one of the "Big Three" and costing $3,374 including tax. The car was equipped with a V-8 engine, automatic transmission, power steering and radio.

The costs, which included gasoline, taxes, parking, tolls, repairs, tires, titling and insurance, were computed on the basis of a Baltimore driver's experience.

The Arkansas Land and Cattle Co., which brought the litigation, claims that the land, called Luna Bar, is within the boundaries of the Arkansas property it owns in Chicot County, although it is separated from the land by a chute of the Mississippi River.

The Arkansas firm maintained that Luna Bar was separated from the Arkansas mainland by an avulsion and therefore remained within the boundaries of the state.

An avulsion is a sudden cutting of a land mass by a flood or by a change in the course of a river.

Writing the opinion in a 4-3 decision by the Supreme Court, Justice John A. Fogleman said the burden of proof was on Anderson-Tully to show that the Arkansas court lacked jurisdiction adding that the company did not meet the burden of proof.

The case was sent back to Merritt for further proceedings.

Kirk Quits, Says Court Is Solution

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk, after defying a federal judge for a week, has ended his personal rule of the Manatee County schools. He says the solution to his integration battle lies with the courts.

Kirk's move Sunday cleared the way for court-ordered racial balancing of 17,000 pupils in the county's schools. It also apparently purged him of contempt of a federal court and the threat of a $10,000 fine a day until he stopped blocking desegregation by busing.

The governor said he was ending his control of schools in Manatee, a Gulf Coast county just south of Tampa, because the U.S. Justice Department had agreed to help him seek modification of the plan that requires busing of an additional 2,600 pupils.

In Washington a Justice Department spokesman said the department had agreed only to seek more study of the desegregation plan ordered by U.S. Dist. Judge Ben Krentzman in Tampa.

Rules State Jurisdiction in Land Case

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The state Supreme Court ruled today that an Arkansas court had jurisdiction over a case disputing the ownership of 700 acres of land located in the Mississippi River.

The court sent the case back to Chancellor James Merritt, who earlier had dismissed the litigation on grounds that he lacked jurisdiction.

Anderson-Tully Co. of Memphis, which claimed ownership of the land, contended that Merritt lacked jurisdiction because the land was within the boundary of Mississippi. The company claims the property accreted to its land in Washington County, Mississippi, by erosion of the river.

Many Senators Likely to Feel Some Heat Over Carswell Vote

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats Albert Gore of Tennessee and Ralph Yarborough of Texas may get the most heat because of their votes against G. Harold Carswell, but other senators up for re-election this year could feel a warm breeze or two.

This early opinion comes from politicians in several key states and from the senators themselves in the wake of last Wednesday's 51-45 Senate rejection of President Nixon's second try at appointing a Southern judge to the Supreme Court.

"Only time can tell," Gore said Sunday when asked what impact his anti-Carswell vote will have on his effort to win another term.

But he said his decisions against Carswell, and against Clement F. Haynsworth last fall, "were very hurtful to me."

Apollo Goes Into Moon Orbit Tues.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 13's astronauts sped on target for the moon today, sprucing up and setting things right for a rocket burst that will shoot them into lunar orbit Tuesday.

James A. Lovell Jr., Fred W. Haise Jr. and John L. Swigert Jr. retired early today for 10 hours rest. Mission Control planned to let them sleep until early afternoon.

The spacemen were relaxing on the three-day outward journey in preparation for four grueling days in the vicinity of the moon. Preparation for Wednesday's lunar landing begins tonight when Lovell and Haise crawl through a connecting tunnel to inspect the lunar craft they call Aquarius.

They'll check communications, propulsion and other systems to make sure the spindly legged lander is ready for the difficult and dangerous descent to the moon's ancient Fra Mauro highlands Wednesday night.

In this rugged area on the eastern shore of the Ocean of Storms, Lovell and Haise plan to deploy a nuclear-powered science station, drill 10 feet beneath the lunar crust and trek nearly two miles on a geology field trip. They hope to gather rocks dating back some five billion years to the creation of the moon.

The astronauts zipped past the halfway mark—128,000 miles from both earth and moon—Sunday and fired a brief burst of their spaceship engine to shift course slightly and zero in on a spot 70 miles above the lunar surface. They hope to hit that bull's-eye and fire into lunar orbit at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The otherwise uneventful day Sunday was enlivened when Swigert suddenly realized to the amusement of his fellow crewmen that—in the last-minute rush to climb aboard Apollo 13 in place of measles-menaced Thomas K. Mattingly—he had forgotten to file his 1969 income tax return and had left part of his flight plans behind.

The flight information was later radioed to him from Mission Control.

The two-second engine ignition occurred during a 50-minute telecast beamed to Mission Control in Houston. The camera focused on an instrument panel and viewers on earth saw the sudden jolt on monitoring screens.

Lovell, Haise and Swigert started the telecast with an out-the-window view of the moon—nearly three-quarters in shadow.

Dickie Phillips led the assault by winning the event at 16 feet, 7 1/2 inches, well above the SWC mark of 16-feet set by Rice's Warren Brattlof in 1965.

The feat was the highlight of weekend track activity that also included triangular meets at Fayetteville and Arlington.

Baylor won by an 88-49 margin over Arkansas and SMU was third with 31.

Strike Still Hurts Many Industries

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Teachers in Los Angeles and truck drivers in Chicago were poised to walk out today to add to the list of schools and trucking companies around the nation beset by labor troubles.
The 19-day-old "sick out" by air controllers continued to have some impact in New York, Kansas City, Denver and some West Coast airports.
Schools Supt. Robert Kelly of Los Angeles said he would try to keep all possible classes in the 616 schools of the nation's second largest school system open by using nonstriking, substitute and supervisory teachers.
The United Teachers of Los Angeles, which claims to represent 22,000 of the 25,000 teachers, is seeking more pay, smaller classes, class aides and physical improvements such as air conditioning and carpeting.
Teachers strikes continued in Minneapolis, Butte, Mont., and Muskogee, Okla.
Truck drivers from North Carolina to California remained off the job while Chicago area trucking unions set the strike against carriers who have not signed contracts.

Five Chicago trucking associations that refused to sign contracts began notifying employees over the weekend that a lockout would be in effect this morning.
The Chicago unions are demanding a $1.65 an hour wage boost over three years instead of the $1.10 over the span provided by a national settlement between the Teamsters Union and carriers groups.
The tentative pact has not yet been ratified by the membership.
In the air controllers situation, the Federal Aviation Administration said Sunday that severe staffing problems remained only in New York, Denver and Kansas City. There were undermanned staffs also at two San Francisco area facilities.
Editorial employees were on strike against the Boston Record American in a demand for higher pay.
The New York Newspaper Guild broke off talks with the New York Post and called a strike for 6 a.m. Tuesday.

Contact Lends Helping Hand to Others

By JUDY BAINE
Pine Bluff Commercial
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The telephone rings.
It's a man saying "I've been looking down the business end of a 45 for 30 minutes. Do you have anything to say to me before I use it?"
The telephone rings again.
A young boy says he is trying to make wheatcakes, but he can't understand the recipe. He doesn't know what shortening is.
The person on the other end of the telephone conversation listens, then begins talking.
Hopefully the man ready to commit suicide is given a better solution to his problems.
When the little boy is told what shortening is, perhaps he was able to make wheatcakes.
This is the work of Contact, a nationwide ministry that uses the telephone to lend a helping hand to distressed people who for various reasons will not turn to any other source for aid.
Contact was inaugurated at Pine Bluff recently. Contact also operates an office in Little Rock.

Mrs. Fran Millard, director of the Little Rock office, said that groups in several other cities in the state were considering the possibility of opening Contact offices.
The idea behind the telephone ministry approach to people in need began in Sydney, Australia, under the name of "Life Line." The founder of "Life Line" was Dr. Alan Walker, who spoke in Pine Bluff during a 1967 lecture series.
Ten weeks of training sessions for the Pine Bluff program began on Jan. 22 with an average of 110 persons from 13 different churches attending, according to Jay W. Dickey Jr., publicity chairman for the program.
Dickey said as many as 134 and as few as 90 persons attended the sessions. The workers' ages ranged from 28 to 75, he said.
Lectures during the training sessions ranged from a biblical background and an identification of the psychological and emotional problems of people to an explanation of the referral services offered in Pine Bluff.
The Rev. Ross E. Whetstone, director of the National Council of telephone Ministries at Nashville was guest speaker at the dedicatory service at Pine Bluff. Giving an example of the apparent need for the program, Whetstone said Contact was opened in Chattanooga, Tenn., in September and the last review of the operation showed 14,446 calls of all types received since then, he said.

Many were "silent calls," Whetstone said. Silent calls are recorded as those in which the person doesn't speak. These calls are not lost, Whetstone said, and the time isn't wasted. May be the encouraging words will lead the caller to call again and tell the listener his problems.
Whetstone said Contact workers had often received calls from persons who said "I called four times before I had the courage to speak."
All workers take a vow of secrecy before they begin to answer the telephone, Whetstone said. The names of the workers and the site of the operation must remain anonymous.
If a Contact worker needs to refer a caller to a doctor, lawyer or psychiatrist, the caller must give his telephone number. The professional will call him immediately.
A middle step between the telephone operator and referral is the senior worker. This is a person who will go immediately to the caller in need to talk with

Groups Plan Protests Against War

By MARTHA COLE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — While millions of Americans grumble quietly about paying income taxes, three peace groups are planning protests this week against using the tax money for war.
Starting today with a fast, including a "nondinner" scheduled at Lafayette Park across from the White House, protest leaders say the three days before Wednesday's midnight deadline for filing tax returns will be filled with rallies, demonstrations and student strikes in more than 150 cities and on hundreds of college campuses.
The war protests were called by the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, the Vietnam Moratorium Committee and the Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam.
Protest leaders are planning rallies and demonstrations Wednesday to focus on the past and present use of tax money for war spending. They say they also want to show the relationship of the Vietnam war to inflation and social problems.
The taxpayer rallies in most cities, organizers said, would be held in front of or near Internal Revenue Service centers. They also plan "Boston Tea Party" demonstrations, the passing out of leaflets in shopping areas, and the circulation of petitions and antiwar literature.
Rallies are slated for such cities as Boston, New York, Baltimore, Newark, Knoxville, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Houston and Dallas. But national organizers also claimed many smaller cities and towns would be having demonstrations.
The Vietnam Moratorium Committee says eight U.S. senators and 17 representatives have endorsed the taxpayer rallies. It also claimed endorsements from more than 300 student leaders.
The Student Mobilization Committee, which called a student strike for April 15, said it is unable to predict how many
